30 Days of Dinner Conversation Starters

Ready to get the table talking? Start by printing out these questions, cutting them into strips and keeping them in a small bowl on the table. Pull out one strip each night to keep the conversation going.

KIDS

- ✂️ 01: If you could only eat one food for the rest of your life, what would it be?
- 02: Would you rather have an indestructible sports car or a flying horse?
- 03: If you could have any superpower, what would it be?
- 04: If a genie gave you three wishes, what would you wish for? You can't say, "More wishes"!
- 05: If you could jump into any storybook, which one would you pick and why?
- 06: If you suddenly shrunk down to 1 inch tall, what would you do first?
- 07: If you could fill a swimming pool with any food, what would it be? Would you go swimming in it?

- 30: If you had to be trapped in a board game, which game would it be?

TIP:

Need a little help getting the conversation flowing? Set the standard by volunteering to answer a question first, and then explain your answer. If your child gives a short or one-word answer, ask for more details or follow up with a few questions. "Why?" is a great place to start!
