30 Days of Dinner Conversation Starters

Ready to get the table talking? Start by printing out these questions, cutting them into strips and keeping them in a small bowl on the table. Pull out one strip each night to keep the conversation going.

TEENS & ADULTS

01: If you had $1,000 and 20 minutes to spend in any store, where would you shop?

02: If you were stranded on a desert island with one person at this table, who would you pick?

03: What's your favorite thing about the person to your left?

04: If you could be any age for the rest of your life, how old would you be?

05: What's your first memory?

06: What's your favorite family vacation of all time?

07: What's the most important subject in school and why?

08: What does your perfect morning look like?

09: If you could automatically master any sport, what would it be?

10: What's your dream job?

11: If you won the lottery, what would be the first thing you'd buy?

12: Where in the world would you like to visit most and why?

13: If you could live inside a video game, which one would it be?

14: Would you rather live in ancient Egypt or medieval Europe?

15: If your family was starving, would you steal bread to feed them?

TEENS & ADULTS

29: What do you find beautiful about yourself?

30: If you could only have one of the five senses, which would it be?

TIP:

Need a little help getting the conversation flowing? Set the standard by volunteering to answer a question first, and then explain your answer. If your child gives a short or one-word answer, ask for more details or follow up with a few questions. "Why?" is a great place to start!
